Time with Pastor Tina

34 Then Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, his mother: "This child is destined to cause the falling and rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be spoken against, 35 so that the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed. And a sword will pierce your own heart too." Luke 2:34-35

Welcome to the April/May Spire. During these two months we celebrate two very special days, Easter, the Resurrection of our Lord and Mother's Day. Easter is not a Federal holiday but it and in many places Good Friday are official public holidays. Schools and some businesses have also added "Easter Monday" to provide a longer holiday break for students and employees.

Following the death of her own mother in 1905, Anna Jarvis began a campaign to celebrate mothers with their own holiday. With the help of Postmaster General, John Wanamaker, she persevered and the first official Mother's Day was held on Sunday, May 10, 1908. By 1911 all states were observing Mother's Day. On May 9, 1914, President Woodrow Wilson signed a joint resolution of Congress recommending that Congress and the executive departments observe Mother's Day. The next year, the President was authorized to proclaim Mother's Day as an annual national observance. (Wow! Teamwork!)

I don't know about you, but I know many mothers are recognized on more than just Mother's Day. Easter flowers purchased to beautify the church are taken to Mom as a gift on Easter Sunday. Of course there needs to be a card to go along with it to verbalize the love felt for Mom. Some families to her delight and ours honor Mom and our Lord by joining her in worship on Easter Sunday (Sunday, April 5, at 8:00 or 10:15 am). 😉

There are even more ways to honor mothers. In the Beatles song "Let It Be," Sir James Paul McCartney sings "When I find myself in times of trouble, Mother Mary comes to me, speaking words of wisdom, let it be." Many who have heard this song over the ages believe Sir McCartney is referring to the mother of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ; however, Sir McCartney is referring to his own mother, Mary Patricia McCartney who died when he was just 14 years old. He explained that during a troubled time in his life, he had a dream about her and she left him with the reassuring words "Let It Be." Such wise words to whisper through the veil to those on the other side. What a gift! Oh, if more people would just, "Let It Be" our world would be a more peacefilled place.

There is another songwriter who did write about Mary, the mother of Jesus. Mark Lowry, who describes himself as "the poster boy for hyperactivity" is the author of "Mary Did You Know?" A beautifully, moving perhaps even heart wrenching song asking Mary if she realized who her son really was and what he would do for the people of God.

"Mary Did You Know?"

Mary did you know – That your baby boy – Would one day walk on water?
Mary did you know – That your baby boy – Would save our sons and daughters?
Did you know that your baby boy – Has come to make you new?
This child that you've delivered – Will soon deliver you.
Mary did you know – That your baby boy – Would give sight to a blind man?
Mary did you know – That your baby boy – Would calm a storm with his hand?
Did you know – That your baby boy – Has walked where angels trod?
When your kiss your little baby – You've kissed the face of God.
The blind will see – The deaf will hear – The dead will live again
The lame will leap – The dumb will speak – The praises of the lamb!
Mary did you know – That your baby boy – Is Lord of all creation?
Mary did you know – That your baby boy – Would one day rule the nations?
Did you know – That your baby boy – Is Heaven's perfect Lamb?
This sleeping child you're holding – Is the great I AM!
Written by Mark Lowry, Music by Buddy Greene

When Joseph and Mary had taken Jesus to the temple as an infant it was to offer sacrifices to God for Mary's purification after childbirth and to redeem Jesus as the firstborn son. Being a carpenter all he could afford we two turtle doves. It is here the couple encounter Simeon who blesses them and makes the proclamation "This child is destined to cause the falling and rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be spoken against, [35] so that the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed. And a sword will pierce your own heart too."

Years ago, as a young mother, a wiser woman told me this about raising children, "When they are little they step on your lap. When they are older, they step on your heart." Jesus didn't intentionally mean to "pierce" his mother's heart. It was all part of the plan of the great I AM

What this Mother Mary may have understood and or didn't understand regarding her son Jesus who became our Savior, she still watched as he was crucified, died and was buried. Yet, she also was able to rejoice as she witnessed his resurrection as he appeared to the disciples on Easter! As we too should rejoice on Easter Sunday with shouts of Alleluia! Christ is Risen!

Have a Blessed Easter and Mother's Day,

Pastor Dina

Many thanks for all the donations February 8, 2026 on Souper Bowl Sunday. There were 225 food items donated for the Southern York County Pantry totaling 415lbs. Our Daily Bread Soup Kitchen donations were $368.00. Thank you for your generosity.

2/27/26 Salem Lutheran Church,

Thank you for giving us the opportunity to remodel the serving area in the Grove Building. The renovations were long overdue.

My grandkids, Jamie and Autumn helped whenever they could. Working with my grandkids has been a real treat. While plumbing one of the three columns, Jami was holding the level with one hand and playing a game on his phone with the other and was still able to read the level.

While removing the old countertop, to our surprise, Autumn found an orb-weaver spider and was able to identify it. She likes to collect and pin insects. And Jennifer donated a print of The Last Supper.

Again, I thank you, we thank you. Please accept all the time and expenses as a gift to the church in honor of Shirley A. Glatfelter; wife, mother, and grandmother.
Thank you, God Bless You, our church and its members.
Steve, Jennifer, James, Autumn

In Pennsylvania, it became mandatory for volunteers working with children to obtain clearances starting in 2015. "Act 15 of 2015: requires all volunteers who have direct contact with children to obtain background checks." Those required clearances for volunteers at Salem include: Pennsylvania State Police Criminal Record Check and Child Abuse History Clearance. The law applies to anyone working with children—religious organizations, schools, scouts, sports leagues, youth programs, etc. Clearances must be renewed every five years. Why? The legislation aims to enhance child safety and protect minors from potential abuse.

(Pastor Tina didn't decide to make this mandatory the state did and the Church Insurance Policy requires it!)

If we want to restart children's Sunday School Hour or have VBS this summer PA Child Abuse Clearance Certificate Are Necessary!
